

Members Pictures & Church Announcements 2025 Issue 72

Summer is over and we are heading into Fall, my favorite time of year. This month with the changing of the season and the beauty of Fall, the changing color of leaves and the morning crisp air, might you choose to live each day with the conscious awareness that God wants to bless you? How about taking a blessing break once a day? Simply pause, take a minute to relax in the moment, and to connect with what God has blessed us with and the beauty all around us. Instead of looking for the bad things that happened in your day, look around and appreciate at least one good thing, it will change your mood.

If you have pictures, you would like to share with us: Halloween photos, Fall Decorating, Eagles Party, Childs sports, etc., please send them to me and I will include in the next issue. Anything you would like to share, please send to me. All pictures are welcome.

During this time of worship, please know that we are available through email and phone messages. I am checking them regularly and response in a very timely manner. Please reach out if you need anything. If I can't answer your question, I will find out the answer and get back to you.

Please stay safe and healthy and know we are here for you.
